We welcome new visitors and old friends;

We welcome people of every age and size, color and culture, every sexual orientation, gender identity and gender expression, any socioeconomic class, marital status, ability, challenge, and all other groupings and orientations;

We welcome people of all races and are committed to being an anti-racist community.

We welcome believers and questioners, and questioning believers;

This is a place where all are welcome to celebrate and grieve, rejoice and recover, and where lives are made new.
